Introduction

Visiting Ribera del Duero has become an important and increasingly fascinating part of my wine tasting year. The two weeks that I spend there in early September are a chance to say goodbye to summer and, these days, experience the new harvest in person. Not so long ago, I wouldn't have seen a single grape picked, but earlier, warmer growing seasons have changed all that.

As was the case in even hotter 2022, the vintage was well underway when I arrived on September 10th 2023. As ever, this gave me the chance to talk to invariably tired and sometimes stressed out winemakers and viticulturists at a vital moment in the year. Picking dates, in particular, have a very important impact on the style of the finished wine. It's also, of course, a great time to take a few photos.

This is the seventh year that I've selected my favourite 100 Ribera del Dueros at the invitation of the local Consejo Regulador. (The final choice, I should add, is entirely my own, with no outside influence whatsoever.) The 13-day, fact-finding visit that I did earlier this year was as intense as ever. All in all, I tasted 552 wines from a record 181 bodegas, visiting nearly half of them in person. I also spent three mornings visiting vineyards with César Maté of Marta Maté, Jesús and Sara Sastre of Hermanos Sastre and Dani Pérez of Hermanos Pérez Pascuas.

Ribera del Duero is predominantly a red wine region, of course, with Tinto Fino the dominant grape. But it also makes rosés, or claretes – indeed, this was the region's dominant wine style as recently as the 1970s – and, since the 2019 vintage, has included white wines based on the local Albillo Mayor grape under the Denominación de Origen. There are a record six whites and one rosado in this year's Top 100, with several very different styles on offer.

Ribera del Duero is a famously extreme, even marginal area, which has one of the shortest growing seasons on the planet. Frosts are not unheard of in June and the harvest is normally completed by mid-October, or earlier in hotter vintages. There is considerable variation from one year to the next, which is as much a strength as a weakness in a fine wine region, where consumers prize quality and an expression of place above consistency. No two vintages are the same.

The four vintages that dominate this year's Top 100 are a case in point. 2021 (25 wines) was fresh and comparatively moderate, producing some of the best wines of the last decade, 2020 (33 wines) was more mixed, depending on when people harvested, but has also produced some excellent reds, 2019 (20 wines) was hot, dry, but balanced, while 2018 (14 wines) was a cooler, wetter, so called "Atlantic" year. Apart from these four vintages, there are wines from 2017, 2016 and 2014 in my selection, as well as three non-vintage (CVC in Spanish) reds.

All of the wines in the Top 100 scored 94 points or more. One achieved 99 points and three 98 points. Every year, I am heartened by the general shift in style – at least among the top producers – towards greater elegance, freshness and balance and away from power, alcohol and reliance on colour and oak rather than fruit and acidity. Ribera del Duero's wines are increasingly made like tea, not coffee.

There has been a degree of evolution, once more, among the bodegas represented in the Top 100. Some producers have been there since the start – how can you create such a list without Dominio de Es, Dominio de Pingus, Hermanos Pérez Pascuas, Hermanos Sastre and Vega Sicilia, for instance? – but there are additions every year. Seven notable newcomers in 2023 are Cuentaviñas, El Lagar de Isilla, Feliz Compañía Vinícola, Milsetentayseis, Protos, Territorio Luthier and Trespiedras Fuentecén, while four of the bodegas that featured for the first time last year are there again: Abadía San Quirce, Casa Lebai, Familia Fernández Rivera and Sei Solo. It's great to watch the DO evolve with every vintage.

One last trend that I would again like to highlight is the continuing trend towards village and parcel specific wines. Some of the best Ribera del Dueros are blended across the region – Aalto, Alión, Ausàs, Cuentaviñas and Garmón being top examples – but a growing number reflect individual terroirs and communes. As people learn more about Ribera del Duero, so they will come to recognise the differences between wines from, say, Anguix, Aranda and Atauta, or Moradillo de Roa, Nava de Roa and Roa itself. The next step will be the recognition of the very best sites, possibly as the equivalent of Burgundy's Grands Crus. For now, this is some way off, but a meaningful map of the region's terroirs is long overdue.

The more information they have, the more consumers and wine specialists will understand the complexity and diversity of Ribera del Duero. What happens in the cellar will always influence the finished wine, but, as estate agents are always telling us, it's location, location, location that really counts.

I hope you enjoy tasting the wines from my 2023 Ribera Top 100 as much as I did selecting them.

Tasting notes

Reds

Vega Sicilia Único 2014

Reserva (14%)

The 2014 Único is the second wine in a row from a cooler, so-called Atlantic year, although the harvest was considerably less wet than 2013. Sourced from the best 40 hectares on the Vega Sicilia estate, covering a total of 30 parcels, this is a stunningly floral, complete, layered Tinto Fino with lily, wild rose and mountain herb aromas, subtle French and 25% American oak, some added backbone from 6% Cabernet Sauvignon, and a palate of bramble, black cherry, Asian spices and tobacco embellished and freshened by a bright, chalky finish. 2026-40

Dominio de Es La Diva 2021

Cosecha (13.8%)

La Diva is one of Ribera del Duero and Spain's outstanding reds, a wonderful wine from a 0.3-hectare plot of very old vines inside the larger Paraje de Valdegatiles on sand and limestone soils. Refined, balanced and harmonious, it has some subtle reduction, perfumed oak, effortless minerality, layers of bramble, plum and red berry fruit and top notes of aromatic herbs. Ambitiously priced, but the outstanding quality of the wine justifies it. 2026-40

Dominio de Pingus Pingus 2021

Cosecha (14.5%)

The latest in a series of brilliant releases from Peter Sisseck, this world-famous wine uses grapes from two old-vine plots in La Horra - Barroso (three hectares) and San Cristóbal (one hectare) - located between 800 and 837 metres. Engagingly elegant and refined, this has plenty of underlying concentration, ethereal aromas of violet and aromatic spices, palate-coating texture, plum and black cherry fruit and a chalky freshness on the finish. 2026-40

Bodegas Félix Callejo Félix Callejo 2021

Cosecha (14.5%)

The icon wine from the Callejo family has established itself as one of the best reds in Spain, not just in Ribera del Duero. Marrying Tinto Fino with 3% Garnacha (the latter grape for the first time), this hails from two parcels (Medio Arroyo and Montecillo) on chalky soils at 900 metres and is wonderfully precise and refreshing. Less oaky than it has been in the past, it has appropriately switched from a Bordeaux to a Burgundy bottle, showing subtle reduction, pomegranate, plum and blueberry fruit and graceful, sculpted tannins. 2024-30

Bodegas Garmón Continental Garmón 2021

Cosecha (14.5%)

Eduardo García makes this outstanding assemblage of Tinto Fino and 5% Cabernet Sauvignon with grapes sourced from Anguix, Baños de Valdearados, Moradillo and Tubilla del Lago. It's a wine that illustrates his skills as a blender, showing a well-judged combination of structure and acidity. Clove spice, plum, orange zest and blueberry flavours are framed by scented, lightly toasty oak. One of the best Garmón releases yet. 2026-40

Bodegas Valdaya Mirum 2021

Cosecha (14%)

A superb follow-up to the highly praised 2020 release, Mirum uses fruit from two high-altitude, pudding stone and limestone-based parcels in cooler climate Baños de Valdearados, namely Los Bueyes and Las Piedras. Matured in French and Austrian oak, it's a wonderfully fresh, elegant, delicate Tinto Fino with cinnamon and subtle vanilla top notes, some stylish reduction, a waft of aromatic wild herbs, pithy, chalky acidity and fine-boned tannins. 2025-32

Bodegas y Viñedos Gallego Zapatero Yotuel Finca de San Miguel 2016

Cosecha (14.5%)

One of the great vineyards of Ribera del Duero, Finca de San Miguel is a 90-year-old parcel of 0.7-hectares on a north-facing slope. Often released with a little more bottle age, it has considerable concentration, aromas of lavender, oregano and incense, understated oak and flavours of dark berry fruit and dried herbs. Complex stuff. 2023-32

97

Vega Sicilia Único Reserva Especial (2024 Release) NV

Reserva (14%)

The 2024 release of Reserva Especial - in with a shout as the best non-vintage dry red in the world - is well up to the illustrious standards of its predecessors. Marrying Tinto Fino with 5% Cabernet Sauvignon, it's a three-way cuvée of the 2010, 2011 and 2012 harvests, with appealing wood and bottle-aged complexity. Rosemary and forest floor top notes segue into a palate that's fine, scented and almost sweet, with classic balsamic clove and vanilla spices and a savoury, well-balanced finish. One for traditionalists. 2025-40

Ausàs Interpretación 2021

Cosecha (15%)

"Very fresh" is how Xavier Ausàs describes this pan-Ribera del Duero Tinto Fino, which combines components from mostly Nava de Roa with lesser amounts from Gumiel de Mercado, Moradillo and Roa. Aged in 30% new barrels with 3% whole bunches, it's redder fruited than its predecessors, with a noticeable thread of chalky minerality. Bramble, plum and red cherry flavours are complemented by subtle vanilla spicy oak and fine-grained tannins. 2025-35

96

Bodegas Hermanos Pérez Pascuas Pérez Pascuas 2018

Gran Reserva (14.5%)

The marquee wine from Pérez Pascuas hails from the clay and limestone soils of the Finca Valtarreña, located at 838 metres in Pesquera de Duero. Matured in an equal combination of French and American barrels, 60% of them new, this is a Tinto Fino that will age gracefully in bottle, but is starting to open up now, with some savoury, balsamic undertones, dense blackberry and liquorice flavours and a chalky finish. 2026-40

Bodegas Marta Maté Los Perejiles 2021

Cosecha (14%)

"We couldn't make a classic Ribera del Duero here, even if we wanted to," says César Maté of this 0.2-hectare parcel in Tubilla del Lago, which may be as much as 200 years' old. Peppery, chalky and intense, this is a remarkable blend of Tinto Fino and 5% Albillo Mayor, with the structure, intensity and focus to support ageing in new 500-litre barrels. Focused, mineral and herbal, with tangerine, black cherry and raspberry fruit and fine-grained tannins. 2025-35

Bodegas y Viñedos Gallego Zapatero Yotuel Finca Valdepalacios 2019

Cosecha (15%)

Finca Valdepalacios is an 86-year-old vineyard that sits on a gentle, south-facing slope of sandy clay soils. Picked first at Gallego Zapatero, it has delivered a wonderful wine in 2019, combining Tinto Fino with small amounts of other co-planted red and white varieties. Savoury, ethereal and floral, it's a textured, vibrant, beautifully balanced red with top notes of fennel and wild herbs, subtle 20% new oak and a fine, tapering finish. 2025-32

96

Conde de San Cristóbal Oydor 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

Oydor is the top wine at Conde de San Cristóbal, with a price tag to match its ambition. Sourced from two small plots in Quintana del Pidio, one planted in the 1950s, the other in 1960, it's a hugely impressive third release from Jorge Peique and Xavier Ausàs, with alluring aromas of violet and sweet spices, impressive depth and concentration, a ferrous, almost bloody undertone and remarkable energy and palate length. Superb winemaking. 2026-40

96

Dominio de Atauta Llanos del Almendro 2018

Cosecha (14.5%)

Llanos del Almendro uses components from 19 different micro-parcels aged between 140 and 150 years' old and adding up to just 1.39 hectares. Intensely Mediterranean in style, it marries sage, oregano and lavender aromas with a palate that's textured, harmonious, balanced and refreshing, with understated oak and a long, nuanced, tapering finish. 2025-35

96

Dominio de Cair Las Matillas 2020

Cosecha (14%)

Las Matillas is a single parcel located at 830 metres in La Aguilera that benefits from the shade and protection of a nearby wood. A brilliant co-fermentation of Tinto Fino and 5% whole bunch Albillo Mayor, this has subtle, stony reduction, racy mint, pomegranate, plum and strawberry flavours, beautifully judged tannins and a sprinkling of mountain herbs. Wonderfully long and pure. 2025-32

Dominio de Es Carravilla 2021

Cosecha (13.8%)

Tinto Fino needs a partner, according to Bertrand Sourdais, and for him it's the grape's father Albillo Mayor, which makes up 4% of the blend here. This comes from the 0.27-hectare Paraje de Carravilla, a 100-year-old plot on limestone soils. Intense, concentrated yet refreshing, it has nicely integrated older oak, sinewy tannins, lots of colour and depth and incense, blueberry and black cherry fruit. 2025-32

Francisco Barona Finca Las Dueñas 2019

Cosecha (15%)

The only bad news about this single vineyard cuvée from a 1928 parcel in Anguix is that there is so little of it at just 982 bottles. Fermented with 100% whole bunches before maturation in new French oak, it's a complex, layered cuvée of Tinto Fino and 25% Bobal and Albillo Mayor, with top notes of thyme and rosemary, compact, layered tannins, vanilla spicy wood and impressive supporting acidity from its old-vine source. 2025-35

Francisco Barona 2021

Cosecha (15%)

"Four villages, 16 parcels" is Francisco Barona's summary of his pan-Burgos blend of Tinto Fino, Bobal, Garnacha and inter-planted white grapes from Anguix, La Aguillera, La Horra and Roa. Matured in new French barrels, it's a rich, dense, concentrated style that doesn't eschew a certain underlying elegance. Bold yet poised, it has notes of mocha, black fig, blueberry and liquorice, succulent tannins and a lightly toasty finish. 2025-32

Hacienda Monasterio 2019

Reserva (15%)

Reflecting the changes that started in 2016, with earlier picking and slightly higher yields to preserve freshness, the 2019 Reserva is an assemblage of Tinto Fino and 20% Cabernet Sauvignon. Sourced from an east-facing, eight-hectare block on white limestone soils, this is fresh, focused and finely balanced, with violet and coffee bean aromas, a palate of damson and blackberry, layered tannins and a tangy, mineral-etched finish. 2025-35

Hermanos Sastre Pesus Selección de Pedro y Jesús 2018

Cosecha (15%)

Always among the best and most ambitious wines in the region, Pesus uses grapes from three different vineyards, two of which are over 100 years' old. Pairing Tinto Fino with 15% Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot from a parcel planted in 1983, it's a bold, inky, fleshy, full-bodied style that takes no prisoners. Ripe, smooth and plushly oaked, with flavours of dark chocolate, blackberry and liquorice and beautifully judged tannins. 2025-35

Magna Vides Bancales del Sardal 2021

Cosecha (13.5%)

Bancales del Sardal is a classic, old-vine field blend of Tinto Fino and 25% Albillo Mayor that was planted over a century ago on clay and limestone soils. Graceful, elegant and ethereal, it's a Ribera del Duero for Garnacha or Pinot Noir lovers, with rose petal, thyme and violet aromas, effortless density and redcurrant, pomegranate and black cherry flavours supported by tangy minerality. 2024-30

Milsetentayseis Tinto 2020

Cosecha (14%)

As the percentage of new oak has fallen over the last three years, so this impressive wine has started to express the remarkable freshness and quality of its terroir between 900 and 1,076 metres in Fuentenebro. Mostly made from very old vines, it's an assemblage of Tinto Fino and 15% Alarije, Albillo Mayor, Bobal, Garnacha, Graciano, Mazuelo and Viura that's wonderfully bright, chalky, layered and complex. Racy and refined, with red berry and pomegranate flavours, a dusting of oak and textured tannins. 2025-32

Montebaco Parcela Cara Norte 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

This is only the sixth vintage of Cara Norte - there was no 2017 because of the frost - but this organically farmed Tinto Fino has already established itself as one of the best red wines in the region. Elegant, layered, refined and refreshing, it has more than a hint of Mencía or Pinot Noir about it, with top notes of garrigue, lots of zip and minerality, summer berry fruit and vivid acidity. Ludicrously under-priced. 2024-35

Pago de los Capellanes Parcela El Nogal 2019

Cosecha (15.5%)

El Nogal is a single vineyard wine from a 46-year-old parcel of the same name in Mambrilla de Castrejón. Showing the concentration and intensity of the best 2019s, it's a smooth, supple, stylishly balanced Tinto Fino with a nice interplay between 30% new French oak, fine-grained tannins, chocolate, blackberry and mulberry fruit flavours and a fresh, nuanced finish. 2024-35

Valdemonjas Abrí Las Alas 2021

Cosecha (15%)

A 0.6-hectare parcel of 85-year-old Tempranillo in La Horra, called El Nogal de la Velera, is the source of the Valdemonjas' flagship wine. A red that "makes itself", according to Alejandro Moyano, it's an intensely scented, beautifully poised red with some ferrous undertones from clay soils, crunchy black cherry and liquorice flavours and top notes of violet and rose petal. 2024-35

Vega Sicilia Valbuena 5° 2019

Reserva (14.5%)

Valbuena nearly always contains a little Merlot, and that's the case on this 2019, which is dominated by 97% Tinto Fino. Aged in a classic combination of French and 15% American oak, it's a bold, layered, well-structured cuvée with blackberry and blueberry fruit supported by good acidity for the vintage, a balsamic undertone, stylish, youthful tannins and plenty of backbone. 2025-38

Viñedos y Bodegas Áster Finca El Otero 2019

Cosecha (15%)

For my money, this is the best release yet of Finca El Otero, a Tinto Fino whose quality places it among the region's very best wines. Wonderfully floral and engaging, with stylish oak and fine-grained tannins, flavours of green herbs, fennel, blackberry and oregano, some stony reduction and a tangy, chiselled finish. 2024-35

Bodegas Antídoto La Hormiga de Antídoto 2021

Cosecha (14.5%)

La Hormiga is the top red from Bertrand Sourdais, principally sourced from the clay-based soils on the northern side of the Duero river. Matured in 27% new wood, it's a focused, nuanced, well-balanced Tinto Fino with layered tannins, tangerine, blood orange and blackberry fruit and a fresh, tapering finish. 2024-30

Bodegas Bohórquez Bohórquez 2018

Reserva (14.5%)

The cooler, wetter year seems to have suited the Bordeaux-influenced style of this Reserva, produced from an assemblage of Tinto Fino with 10% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Merlot. Graceful, refreshing and scented, it's a Médoc-meets-Ribera red with racy red berry and blackcurrant leaf flavours and layered, savoury tannins. 2024-32

95

Bodegas Briego Eterno Primera Edición NV

CVC (14.5%)

Eterno is a non-vintage (CVC in Spanish) blend of the 2018, 2019 and 2020 vintages, divided equally between the trio. Featuring a 60/40 split between the moorland (páramo) of Fompedraza and the valley of Peñafiel, with ageing in French and 20% American barrels, this has appealing freshness and poise, with notes of mint and blackcurrant leaf, stylish wood spices and alluring balance. Up two points on last year with more time in bottle. 2025-35

Bodegas Briego 2016

Gran Reserva (14.3%)

A step up on the 2015 Gran Reserva bottling in my view, this is a lighter, fresher, better balanced Tinto Fino that shows more of the high-altitude character of Fompedraza. Chalky and refined, it has appealing oak sweetness, a leafy undertone, notes of coffee bean, plum, violet and bramble and sculpted tannins. 2025-35

95

Bodegas El Lagar de Isilla El Lagar de Isilla Vino de Viña Parcela La Sabina San Juan del Monte 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

Volumes are small at only 388 bottles from 0.45 hectares in San Juan del Monte, but the quality of this Tinto Fino and Albillo Mayor blend makes them well worth tracking down. Pale, savoury, spicy and high in acidity, it's a Ribera del Duero that nods towards Barolo, with some subtle reduction, tar and rose petal aromas, lovely focus, sappy red berry fruit and enticing minerality. 2024-30

Bodegas Félix Callejo Majuelos de Callejo 2021

Cosecha (14.5%)

Majuelos uses grapes from low-yielding Tinto Fino and 3% Garnacha vines planted in 1998 on some of what Noelia Callejo calls "the most marginal soils" in Sotillo de la Ribera. Lightly wooded in larger barrels, it's serious, sappy, chalky and quite firm, with black cherry and cranberry flavours, fine tannins and the energy and focus to age in bottle. 2024-30

Bodegas Hermanos Pérez Pascuas Viña Pedrosa 2018

Gran Reserva (14.5%)

The Viña Pedrosa Gran Reserva showcases Tinto Fino grapes from three different Fincas - Carraguzmán, Cerro Viejo and Fuentenogal - with ageing in an equal mix of 50% new French and American wood. Made to age in bottle, it's floral, structured and intense, with a carapace of tannins, lots of supporting acidity, red berry and black cherry fruit, patisserie spice oak and a balsamic undertone. 2025-35

Bodegas La Horra Corimbo I 2018

Reserva (14.5%)

A superb wine from Rioja bodega Roda's Ribera del Duero operation, this is a varietal Tinto Fino that combines components from vineyards with an average of 60 years in Anguix, La Horra and Roa. Perfumed, structured, chalky and refined, it's a layered expression of the 2018 vintage, with a neat combination of French and 20% American oak, good density and palate length and notes of mountain herbs and sweet spices. 2024-29

95

Bodegas Marta Maté Marta Maté 2020

Cosecha (14%)

Marta Maté's eponymous wine uses Tinto Fino grapes from bush-vines planted at an average of 930 metres in three different parcels (Chaval, Malacuera and Valgordo) and is the latest in a series of excellent releases. Thyme, dill and rosemary aromas segue into a youthful, vibrant palate of blueberry and black cherry fruit framed by spicy, toasty 30% new wood. Wonderfully fresh and energetic. 2024-30

Bodegas Monteabellón Finca La Blanquera 2019

Cosecha (14.5%)

Blessed with one of the best views in Ribera del Duero, La Blanquera sits on chalky white slopes at 950 metres above the village of Nava de Roa. The resulting Tinto Fino is remarkably fresh and focused, with lovely minerality, subtle French oak ageing, layered tannins, a sprinkling of green herbs and a core of black cherry and bramble fruit. Beautifully poised and defined. 2024-32

Bodegas Territorio Luthier 2018

Reserva (14%)

No fewer than 17 small parcels, located in Aranda de Duero, La Horra and Zazuar contribute to this blend of Tinto Fino with 10% Garnacha. First made in 2016, it's another superb wine from Fernando Ortiz, with lots of energy, zip and focus, spicy Hungarian oak, filigree tannins, layers of bramble, goji berry and pomegranate fruit and a thread of minerality. Delicious. 2023-30

Bodegas Valtravieso Gran Valtravieso NV

Cosecha (15%)

Gran Valtravieso is a non-vintage blend of the 2018, 2019 and 2020 harvests, produced entirely from Tinto Fino. Fermented with 2.5% whole clusters and aged in older barrels and foudres, it's engagingly floral and herbal, with notes of wet leaves and forest floor, lots of zip and minerality and a core of spicy red berry and black cherry fruit. 2025-32

95

Bodegas Vizcarra Celia 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

Named after Celia Vizcarra, who has now joined her father Juan Carlos in the winery, this is a limestone-influenced pairing of Tinto Fino with 7% Garnacha from a parcel planted in 1946. Subtly wooded in a mix of French and 10% American barrels, it has engaging freshness and minerality, with redcurrant, plum and wild strawberry fruit and delightful palate length. 2025-32

Bodegas y Viñedos Gallego Zapatero Yotuel Finca La Nava 2018

Cosecha (15%)

Finca La Nava is a comparatively youthful, 22-year-old vineyard from a cooler, north-west facing parcel of 0.7 hectares. Difficult to farm and vinify it may be, according to Béquier Prieto, but the effort is worth it. Savoury, intense and floral, it partners potpourri and garrigue aromas with a palate of bramble, redcurrant and blackberry and fine-grained tannins. 2025-30

95

Casa Lebai Matadiablos 2020

Cosecha (13.5%)

Matadiablos comes from a 2.5-hectare, 25-year-old vineyard at 826 metres, located in the coolest part of Gumiel de Mercado. As such, it's a bright, focused, almost chiselled Tinto Fino with some pepper spice from 15% whole clusters. A refined, medium-bodied style with succulent wild strawberry and pomegranate fruit and a racy, beautifully balanced finish. 2024-29

Conde de San Cristóbal Reserva Especial 2021

Reserva (14.5%)

One of the best vintages yet of Conde de San Cristóbal's Reserva Especial, this pure Tinto Fino red uses grapes from the clay-based La Calvacha parcel and has corresponding texture, breadth and concentration. Still youthful - it won't be released until 2026 - it's a dense, structured, intense wine with fine-grained tannins, scented 50% new wood and cassis, fennel and blackberry flavours. 2025-35

Cuentaviñas Tinto Fino 2021

Cosecha (14.5%)

Rioja-based winemaker Eduardo Eguren makes this superb Ribera del Duero at Marta Maté, pairing components from the villages of Anguix, Gumiel de Mercado, Quintanamanvirgo, Pedrosa and Tórtoles de Esgueva. Sensitively wooded in 30% new oak, it's a delicious pan-regional red with thyme, rosemary and sweet spice perfume, impressive structure and backbone, lots of minerality and focus and layers of dark berry fruit. 2025-32

Dominio Basconcillos Viña Magna 2020

Reserva (15.5%)

Every bit as good as the breakthrough 2019 release, this is a beautifully judged assemblage of Tinto Fino with 10% each of Malbec and Cabernet Sauvignon and 2% Merlot. Wonderfully scented and stylish, this is a wine that carries its 100% new wood lightly, with leafy top notes, coffee bean oak, granular tannins and flavours of cassis, blackberry and orange zest. Superb winemaking from Ángel Calleja. 2025-35

Dominio de Atauta La Roza 2018

Cosecha (14.5%)

La Roza uses grapes from three very small parcels totalling 0.24 hectares that were planted an impressive 170 years ago on deep clay and pudding stone soils. Ripe, textured and a little ferrous, this has lavender, pine needle and oregano aromas, spicy second and third use oak, a chalky undertone, plenty of structure and intensity and the concentration to age convincingly in bottle. 2025-35

Dominio de Atauta Valdegatiles 2018

Cosecha (14.5%)

Valdegatiles represents what Jaime Suárez calls the "maximum expression of the structure of the Atauta Valley" and was the first parcel to be made as a stand-alone wine at the bodega. Dense and compact, with brooding tannins that are almost Barolo-like, it has notes of leather and forest floor, fig and mulberry fruit, ample concentration and a firm, but well-balanced finish. 2026-35

Dominio de Cair Cruz del Pendón 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

Three parcels in La Aguilera - Eustasio, La Cruz Vieja and Nava Vieja - are the sources of this impressive Tinto Fino, which now sees no new barrels and is all the more expressive for it. Bolder and more extracted than its stablemate Las Matillas, it has lots of underlying energy and structure, plum and black cherry fruit and a fresh, yet pleasantly grippy finish. 2025-32

Dominio de Pingus Flor de Pingus 2021

Cosecha (14.5%)

Flor is effectively the second wine of Pingus, made with a higher percentage of younger vines than Peter Sisseck's top red. Characteristically refined and perfumed, it's a detailed, beautifully balanced red, rather than a blockbuster, with nuanced 20% new wood, plum and bramble fruit, filigree tannins and a pure, tapering finish. Typically self-assured winemaking. 2025-32

Dominio del Águila 2019

Reserva (14%)

Jorge Monzón's Reserva bottling makes full use of 20 different parcels of 100 year plus vineyards in his home village of La Aguilera. Partnering Tinto Fino with 5% of other grapes, it's rich, dense and concentrated, with thyme and rosemary aromas that give it a Mediterranean twist, bold tannins and notes of garrigue, iodine and black fig. 2024-32

Dominio Fournier 2020

Reserva (14.5%)

Sourced from vineyards close to the Duero River in Berlangas de Roa, this is the best Reserva yet from this González Byass-owned operation. Fresh, silky and acid-driven, it has layers of bramble, raspberry and black cherry fruit, a hint of Asian spices and tobacco leaf, adroitly integrated 50% new oak and a stony, refreshing finish. 2025-35

95

Familia Fernández Rivera Tinto Pesquera Millenium Gran Reserva 2018

Gran Reserva (15%)

The Fernández family has always had a well-deserved reputation for making reds that age gracefully in bottle and this Gran Reserva will certainly do that. Matured in new French wood, it's a focused, still youthful style with flavours of cassis and dark chocolate, plenty of chalky freshness and a layered, focused finish. 2024-30

95

Hacienda Solano Finca Peña Lobera 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

Peña Lobera hails from a 0.6-hectare parcel planted in 1920 in La Aguilera on limestone and sandstone soils. Matured in older barrels to give the terroir free rein, it's engagingly fresh, chiselled and well balanced, with plum, orange zest and pomegranate fruit, fine-boned tannins and a chalky finish. 2025-35

Legaris Alcubilla de Avellaneda 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

Young by the standards of some Soria vineyards - the parcel is only 20 years' old - this vineyard is marked by the freshness of its 929 metre site. Rose petal, thyme and rosemary aromas are a prelude to a subtly wooded, savoury palate with impressive definition, fine-grained tannins and ample fruit concentration. 2025-35

M. Chapoutier España Dominio del Soto Camino Gumiel 2021

Cosecha (14.5%)

Camino Gumiel is a brilliant new wine from Ernesto Peña Peña, made with Tinto Fino from an isolated, 35-year-old parcel of 1.6 hectares at 900 metres. Youthful, perfumed, floral and elegant, it has mountain aromas of liquorice and wild thyme, haunting freshness and zip, pomegranate and black cherry fruit and well-integrated 50% new oak. 2025-32

Pago de los Capellanes Parcela El Picón 2019

Cosecha (15.5%)

El Picón is the icon wine from Pago de los Capellanes, sourced from a 1.7-hectare parcel that was planted in Pedrosa de Duero in 1978. Very modern in style, with 30% new wood and malolactic in barrel, it has considerable concentration, power and structure, aromas of mocha, lavender and Asian spices, layers of bramble, blackberry and blueberry fruit and the structure and acidity to age well. 2025-35

Rafael García y Raúl Tamayo Acediano 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

A wine that is rapidly gaining in reputation, Acediano hails from a 60-year-old parcel on the border between Nava de Roa and Valdezate. It's a gentler, slightly more approachable Tinto Fino than the 2019 release, but with similar depth and complexity. Asian spice and dark chocolate aromas segue into a palate of plum and blackberry supported by acidity and sculpted tannins. 2025-32

Sei Solo Bodegas y Viñedos Sei Solo 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

Picking dates were crucial in 2020, according to Michael Zaccagnini, because of rain during harvest, but he picked before the downpours. Sourced from venerable parcels in La Horra, this is a fine, detailed, elegant Tinto Fino with understated 15% new oak, refreshing acidity and flavours of cassis, redcurrant and summer berries. Drinkable now, but with good ageing potential. 2025-32

Viñedos Alonso del Yerro María de Alonso del Yerro 2020

Cosecha (14%)

María de Alonso de Yerro (the wine, not the person) hails from two contrasting parcels on the estate - El Circo de Quinto de Pedro and Violeta de Viña Montserrat - of 0.97 and 0.84 hectares, respectively. Stylish, refined yet well structured, it has beautifully judged tannins, an earthy undertone, cassis and red berry fruit, scented 20% new wood and a long, balanced, tapering finish. 2025-35

Viñedos y Bodegas García Figuero Tinto Figuero Noble 2019

Cosecha (14%)

Noble showcases the quality of the 73-year-old Parcela de Torrosillo, planted in La Horra at 856 metres. Featuring clay mixed with 20% limestone, this is a dense, serious, age-worthy Tinto Fino showing some ferrous grip, lots of texture and intensity, layered, grippy tannins and a lovely freshness on the finish. The hard work in the vineyard and cellar is paying off here. 2024-20

95

Viñedos y Bodegas García Figuero Tinto Figuero Tinus 2020

Cosecha (15%)

Tinus is a single parcel wine from Malasmañas, a vineyard located in the northern part of La Horra that's protected by the Monte de Villalobón. A wine that oozes class from every pore, it has the freshness of its terroir, showing abundant liquorice and violet aromas, stylish 50% new oak, layered, patrician tannins, tangy blueberry and black cherry fruit and lots of zip and minerality. 2024-32

95

Vivaltus Vivaltus 2019

Cosecha (14%)

It's hard to believe that 2019 is only the fourth release of Vivaltus, such has been the brand's success in a short space of time. This is a judicious blend of Tinto Fino with 0.93% Merlot and 0.15% Cabernet Sauvignon that aspires to greatness. This vintage won't be released for another two years, and needs time to shed some reduction in bottle, but it's already wonderfully textured and nuanced, with chocolate, fresh herbs and summer berry fruit, deftly handled oak and appealing balance. 2024-29

Aalto Bodegas y Viñedos Aalto 2021

Cosecha (14.5%)

Antonio Moral blends grapes from nine different villages in Burgos and Valladolid to produce this pan-Ribera del Duero Tinto Fino, ageing the result in 50% new wood. It's a Médoc-meets-Castilla-y-León style of wine in many ways: ripe, glossy and slightly international in style, with plum, fig and bramble fruit flavours, scented mocha oak and a fresh, balanced finish. Classy stuff. 2026-36

Aalto Bodegas y Viñedos Aalto PS 2021

Cosecha (15%)

PS, short for Pagos Seleccionados or selected parcels, only uses fruit from the famous Burgos villages of La Aguilera and La Horra. As such, it tends to be the more concentrated of the two Aalto reds, displaying considerable structure and staying power. Curated in new French barrels, it's plush, glossy and sweetly perfumed, with top notes of vanilla and clove spice, nuances of wild herbs, grippy tannins and damson and blackberry intensity. 2025-35

94

Alión 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

Produced from a total of 35 different lots located mostly in Padilla de Duero, Pesquera de Duero and Valbuena de Duero, this is an engagingly perfumed Alión that benefited from a cooler, wetter spell in the middle of September. Spicy vanilla, coconut and dark chocolate oak flavours frame a palate that is youthful and dark fruited, with the structure and freshness to age well in bottle. 2025-32

Bodegas Briego Oyada 2019

Cosecha (14.9%)

Oyada is the only red wine in the Briego range that is made entirely with grapes from the high-altitude vineyards surrounding the winery at 910 metres in Fompedraza. As such, it's suitably fresh, chiselled and chalky, with stylish 70% new French and American oak, violet and coffee bean aromas, plenty of grip and sinew and layers of blueberry and blackberry fruit. 2025-32

94

Bodegas El Lagar de Isilla El Lagar de Isilla Vino de Viña Parcela Viña La Torreta 2020

Cosecha (14%)

Viña La Torreta hails from a 73-year-old vineyard of the same name in Langa de Duero. Pairing Tinto Fino with 8% co-planted Albillo Mayor, it's serious, structured and focused, with a hint of good reduction, toasty 50% new wood, plum, damson and redcurrant fruit and the tannic backbone to age in bottle. 2024-30

94

Bodegas Hermanos Pérez Pascuas Finca La Navilla 2020

Reserva (14.5%)

Finca La Navilla is located on sandy soils - the pine trees in the vineyard are a giveaway - and is one of the more "elegant" wines in the Viña Pedrosa range, according to Nuria Peña Albillo. It's still pretty concentrated, sturdy stuff, mind you, with toast and vanilla spice aromas, damson and blackberry fruit, 50% new French oak and a tannic backbone. 2026-35

Bodegas Monteabellón Finca Matambres 2019

Cosecha (14.5%)

Isaac Fernández rates 2019 as one of the best vintages of the last 40 years in Ribera del Duero, but says that it was more important than ever to achieve a "smooth maceration". Sourced from a single parcel of 24-year-old vines on clay-based soils at 830 metres, this is a bold, concentrated Tinto Fino with layers of blackberry and blueberry fruit, supporting acidity and a fresh, slightly herbal finish. 2025-35

94

Bodegas Protos Finca El Grajo Viejo 2020

Cosecha (14.9%)

A series of small parcels at the foot of the Cuesta Manvirgo, one of Ribera del Duero's most famous landmarks furnish the raw material for Protos' icon Tinto Fino. Thyme and dried herb aromas are a prelude to a palate that's concentrated, yet refreshing, with chalky minerality, blueberry and black cherry fruit and very well-integrated new French oak. 2025-35

94

Bodegas Territorio Luthier Hispania 2020

Cosecha (15%)

Territorio Luthier is one of two bodegas in Ribera del Duero that's working with native Spanish Quercus pyrenaica barrels. And very successfully too, given that this cuvée of Tinto Fino with 15% Garnacha and 3% Albillo Mayor is the winery's biggest seller. Spicy fresh and red-fruited, it's a typically nuanced red from Fernando Ortiz with wild herb top notes and tangy, grapefruity acidity. 2024-30

94

Bodegas Trus Pico de Luyas 2020

Cosecha (15%)

Pico de Luyas showcases grapes from two parcels in the highly prized neighbouring villages of Roa and La Horra. Ripe, intense and high-toned, it has the concentration to age further, deftly handled larger oak barrels, redcurrant and blueberry fruit, a mineral core and time on its side. 2024-35

94

Bodegas Trus Punto Geodésico 2020

Cosecha (15%)

A wine that carries its 15% alcohol lightly, this intense, vibrant, well-structured Tinto Fino uses raw material from the contrasting villages of Baños de Valdearados, La Aguilera, Moradillo de Roda and Peñaranda, all of them close to geodesic points. Lightly wooded in a combination of cement and 500-litre barrels, it's chalky and focused, with damson and black cherry fruit and serious, age-worthy tannins. Complex, layered stuff. 2024-32

94

Bodegas Valdaya 2021

Cosecha (14%)

Twenty different parcels on sandy soils in Baños de Valdearados supply the grapes for what Marta Ramas calls her "more classic" Ribera del Duero. Matured in a combination of 25% new 225-, 300- and 500-litre barrels, it has layers of black olive, liquorice and lavender, toasty oak notes, sinewy tannins and the concentration to age further in bottle. 2024-30

94

Bodegas Valtravieso Vino de Finca 2020

Cosecha (15%)

The brilliant Ricardo Velasco makes this varietal Tinto Fino with grapes from a 25-year-old parcel called Valdelobas, located high on the páramo of Piñel de Arriba. Aged in 20% new wood, it's one of the freshest and most refined reds in the denominación de origen, all violet, dill and oregano on the nose, complemented by a palate of cassis, capsicum and fine-grained tannins. 2024-30

94

Bodegas Viña Mayor Secreto 3 RB 2021

Cosecha (13.8%)

Tasted as a finished tank sample, but included here with bottled wines because of its quality, this impressive Tinto Fino hails from a single parcel of 60-year-old plus vines in La Horra called El Almendro. Focused, concentrated and slightly ferrous, it has a hint of good reduction, well-judged tannins, understated oak and a fresh, sappy, mineral-edged finish. 2024-30

Dominio de Es Viñas Viejas de Soria 2021

Cosecha (14%)

Viñas Viejas uses grapes from a patchwork of 41 parcels covering around five hectares in total and is a blend of Tinto Fino with 6% Albillo Mayor. Fermented with 15% whole bunches, with ageing in 30% new barrels, it's an intense, well-structured red that combines notes of aromatic spices, bramble and black cherry fruit and a refreshing, chalky undertone. 2026-30

94

Familia Fernández Rivera Janus 2018

Gran Reserva (14.97%)

Last made back in 2003, Janus is the icon wine from the Fernández family. Combining grapes from the Rendeja vineyard with a 10% contribution from Viña Alta, all aged in new American barrels, this is dense, smoky and rich, with toast and dried coconut aromas, some floral top notes, enticing Asian spices, dark berry and liquorice flavours and impressive structure and palate length. 2024-35

Hacienda Solano Finca Cascorrales 2019

Cosecha (14.5%)

Finca Cascorrales is the more robust and concentrated of Hacienda Solano's two single vineyard bottlings, sourced from a beautiful 1.1-hectare parcel on stony, silex and red sand soils. Firm, grippy and intense, it's a wine that "you have to subdue" according to Toni Sarrión. Mountain herb aromas of pine and oregano are complemented by blackberry and damson fruit flavours. 2025-30

94

Hermanos Sastre Pago de Santa Cruz 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

One of two wines released under the Pago de Santa Cruz label, this comes from seven micro-parcels within the 78-year-old vineyard on predominantly limestone soils. Matured in new American oak, it's rich, dense and beautifully wooded, with notes of dark chocolate, orange zest and blackberry fruit and smooth, fine-grained tannins. Still young. 2024-32

94

Legaris Calmo Legaris 2019

Cosecha (15%)

A series of small, old-vine parcels in the Burgos villages of Olmedillo de Roa, Peñaranda de Duero and Villalbilla de Gumiel supply the raw material for this new French oak-aged Tinto Fino, which marries violet, vanilla and Asian spice aromas with a palate that's smooth, supple and concentrated, yet freshened by acidity. 2025-32

94

Legaris Moradillo de Roa 2020

Cosecha (14.5%)

Moradillo de Roa often produces some of the most structured Ribera del Duero reds, but that's not the case here with this bright, perfumed, rose petal and tobacco leaf-scented number from Jorge Bombín. Textured, fresh and nicely poised, this has good underlying density and grip, layered red berry fruit and plenty of acidity. 2025-35

94

Magna Vides Fuente del Zorro 2021

Cosecha (13.5%)

Planted more than a century ago on its own roots - no one seems to know its exact age - Fuente del Zorro is a 0.7-hectare parcel in La Aguilera that's entirely planted with Tinto Fino. Thyme, sage and rosemary aromas segue into a palate that's sappy, peppery and refreshing, with savoury tannins, understated wood and wonderful energy and underlying complexity. 2024-30

94

Montebaco Selección Especial 2018

Cosecha (14.5%)

Selección uses grapes from Montebaco's estate in Valbuena de Duero as well from various parcels in Baños de Valdearados in the province of Burgos. Aged in new French oak, it's a subtle, nuanced, herbal Tinto Fino that is really starting to hit its stride. Blackberry and summer pudding flavours are freshened and supported by bright, palate-cleansing acidity and a balsamic twist. 2023-30

94

Pago de Carraovejas El Anejón 2019

Cosecha (15.5%)

Spread across the terraces around the bodega in Peñafiel at altitudes ranging between 785 and 840 metres, El Anejón combines three different soil types in a single wine. Pairing Tinto Fino with 3% Merlot and 2% Cabernet Sauvignon, with maturation in 50% new 600-litre barrels, it's a ripe, strapping, full-flavoured style that carries its wood and alcohol lightly. Rich and perfumed, with garrigue and sweet spices aromas and fig and blackberry fruit. 2025-32

94

Pago de los Capellanes Doroteo 2018

Cosecha (15%)

Named after Doroteo Romero, this varietal Tinto Fino is released with a little more bottle age than its stablemates El Nogal and El Picón. Savoury, spicy and a little earthy, it displays aromas of forest floor and tobacco leaf, the concentration of its 103-year-old vines, savoury tannins and enough acidity to lift and freshen the finish. 2024-32

94

Tr3smano TM 2020

Cosecha (15.8%)

Fresher and better balanced than the 2019 TM, despite its 15.8% alcohol, this is an expression of a single 100-year-old plot in Anguix. Bold yet focused, this has floral, garrigue-scented top notes, well-integrated 75% new wood, plenty of Asian spices and a backbone of savoury tannins. 2024-30

94

Valdemonjas Los Tres Dones 2021

Cosecha (14.5%)

Alejandro and Alexis Moyano combine grapes from their El Balcón and Galeria parcels in Quintanilla de Arriba with 25% from La Horra and Quintana del Pidio to make this impressive organic Tinto Fino. Deftly oaked in one-third new French oak, it's serious, structured yet refreshing, with notes of Asian spices and vanilla and layers of plum, black cherry and strawberry fruit. 2025-32

94

Valderiz Tomás Esteban 2017

Cosecha (15%)

Following on from the 2015 release - there was no 2016 - this shows what a top producer can do in a difficult vintage like 2017. Pairing Tinto Fino with 20% Albillo, Bobal, Jaén and Garnacha, it's a structured, layered, well-balanced expression from three parcels planted in the 1940s. Dense, oaky and built to last, it's a red with engaging underlying freshness, black cherry, black olive and pomegranate flavours and plenty of zip and energy. 2025-32

94

Viñedos y Bodegas García Figuero Milagros de Figuero 2020

Cosecha (14%)

More than a dozen small parcels within the Paraje del Camino de los Frailes, facing both north and south, make up the blend here, combining clay and stony components. Thyme and rosemary aromas lead you into a palate showing some subtle reduction, plum and blueberry fruit, stylish 50% new wood, sculpted tannins and a fresh, mineral-edged finish. 2024-30

94

Viñedos y Bodegas García Figuero Tinto Figuero Viñas Viejas 2020

Cosecha (14%)

The old vines - viñas viejas in Spanish - in question were planted between 1942 and 1956 in the clay soils of La Horra's Paraje de Zaloña. Reflecting the fresher, less wooded style at the bodega, this subtle, refined Tinto Fino is adroitly oaked in 50% new French oak, with fine-grained tannins, racy bramble and blackberry fruit and considerable poise and finesse. 2024-30

Vivaltus La Fleur de Vivaltus 2019

Cosecha (14%)

Fleur is the second wine of Vivaltus, but that is no bad thing, given the brilliant quality of the Grand Vin. Tinto Fino-dominated, with just over 1% of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, this is a blend that shows the magic touch of consultant Jean-Claude Berrouet, with detailed tannins, laurel and capsicum undertones, stylish oak, racy acidity and plum and black cherry fruit. 2024-30

94

Yllera Bodegas y Viñedos Meraldís 2019

Cosecha (13.5%)

Meraldís is one of the few wines in the Yllera line up that doesn't include the Bordeaux grapes Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, being a varietal Tinto Fino from Fuentenebro and La Aguilera with small amounts of Garnacha and white grapes. Fermented with 50% whole bunches, it's a perfumed, refined, medium-bodied style with no sign of the heat of the vintage, nicely integrated new wood, chalky tannins and blackcurrant and red cherry fruit. 2024-30

Whites

Bodegas Territorio Luthier Blanco de Guarda 2020

Reserva (13.5%)

The sort of wine that makes you burst into the broadest of smiles, this age-worthy white is a marvel. Based on Albillo Mayor, with lesser contributions from Malvasía, Pirulés and Viura, sourced from 90-year-old plus vineyards between 890 and 1004 metres in Aranda de Duero and Zazuar, it spent 14 hours on skins before fermentation in Hungarian barrels. Struck match, hay and mountain herb aromas of thyme and oregano are a prelude to a structured, intense, focused white with a hint of rock salt and a core of citrus and green fig flavours. Stunning. 2024-30

Bodegas Valtravieso El Manifiesto de Valtravieso 2020

Cosecha (13.5%)

This is the third vintage of El Manifiesto, sourced from a parcel at 915 metres on the páramo of Piñel de Arriba. Macerated on skins and stems for seven days, followed by fermentation and ageing for 19 months in older barrels, it's a worked, complex, unfiltered Albillo Mayor with quince, almond paste and orange peel flavours and a saline, yeasty backdrop. 2023-28

Magna Vides Albillo Mayor 2021

Cosecha (12.5%)

Formerly labelled as Alba Vides, this is a brilliant, age-worthy white from Andrea Sanz and Pablo Arranz, made with a mix of Albillo Mayor and 5% Garnacha Blanca from their centenary Paraje Sardal. Whole bunch pressed before a long, 85-day fermentation in new French oak, it has notes of struck match and gunflint, zesty, tangy acidity and flavours of fennel, beeswax and lemon zest. 2024-30

94

Feliz Compañía Vinícola Más Feliz Que Una Perdiz 2019

Cosecha (13.5%)

Vineyards that are over 60 years' old in Baños de Valdearados and Villálvaro provide the raw material for this complex, small-production Albillo Mayor from white wine specialist Félix Marina. Skin-macerated before fermentation in 20% new French oak and acacia barrels, it has notes of patisserie, lime and orange peel and a top note of fresh hay. Classy stuff. 2023-27

94

M. Chapoutier España Dominio del Soto Albillo 2022

Crianza (12%)

A step up from the already very good Cosecha bottling, this barrel-fermented Albillo Mayor uses grapes from the same vineyard, but spent more time on its lees. Beeswax and lanolin aromas are a scented introduction to a palate that combines flavours of pear, quince and chamomile, with lovely texture and weight, bright underlying minerality and a dusting of baking spices. 2024-29

Trespiedras Fuentecén Unanimous Santa Cruz 2019

Cosecha (13.2%)

A brilliant label - El Cid meets Star Wars - and an equally delicious wine, Jorge Arandilla's Albillo Mayor is one of the best whites in Ribera del Duero. Subtly fermented in 70% new wood, it combines aromas of jasmine, chamomile, green tea and struck match with a palate of citrus, blanched almonds and beeswax framed by oak spices. 2024-28

Rosé

Bodegas Territorio Luthier Clarete de Guarda 2020

Reserva (14.5%)

"We want people to talk about Ribera del Duero's claretes," says Cristina Alonso, and they'll certainly do so if they taste this brilliant, age-worthy example that ranks alongside the best in Spain. Made with an equal mix of nine red and white varieties from high-altitude vineyards in Aranda de Duero, Gumiel de Mercado, La Horra and Zazuar, it's a racy, focused, intense rosado, with subtle American oak ageing, pomegranate, passion fruit and redcurrant flavours and savoury tannins. Truly outstanding. 2024-30

I would like to thank Pablo Baquera, Alicia Fernández and Santiago Hinojosa of the Consejo Regulador, who organised my trip and drove me around the region for 13 days, and to all the growers and winemakers who showed me around vineyards and submitted their wines for review. I couldn't hope for three better or more enthusiastic companions. Ribera is lucky to have them.
